PRESSES ON VILLA

Flying Column of American Cavalry Continue Pursuit Relentlessly.

Bandits Are Reported Fleeing at Full Speed With Horses and Men Wearied.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, March 29.—The hunt for Francisco Villa by the flying columns of American cavalry continued relentlessly today, but from the meagreness of the official dispatches from General Pershing's advanced base, it was impossible to learn the position of the American troops and how far they were in the rear of the fleeing bandits.

Villa was last heard of heading southward toward the Tarahumara mountain country, his command driving Mexican ponies at full speed and being closely pressed by the American troopers.

Commanders of the Carranza troops now in the Chihuahua region have lost trace of Villa, apparently, for no report has been received by Mexican officials here for some time concerning the bandit's whereabouts.

FAIR SKIES DISPEL GLOOM

Falling Rivers Bring Encouragement to Nervous Polks in Flood Zone.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Fair skies and falling rivers today dispelled flood fears over Ohio.

At the local Weather Bureau, it is said that the situation is "decidedly improved everywhere," with slight cause for uneasiness except at points on the extreme southern part of the Muskingum Valley.

The Scioto River flood crest was at Chillicothe and at all points north of there the river was falling, having reached 13 feet at Columbus.

SALONIKI RAID

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, March 29.—Twenty persons were killed, between thirty and forty were wounded and two German aeroplanes were destroyed, in the aerial raid over Saloniki on Monday, says an official statement issued here this afternoon.

TROOPS MAY USE MEXICAN RAILROADS

Carranza Has Decided to Permit U. S. to Use Northwestern Railway for Transportation—Consent Greatly Aids Expedition.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 29.—General Carranza has decided to permit the United States army to use the Mexican Northwestern Railway for transportation in the pursuit of the Villa bandits.

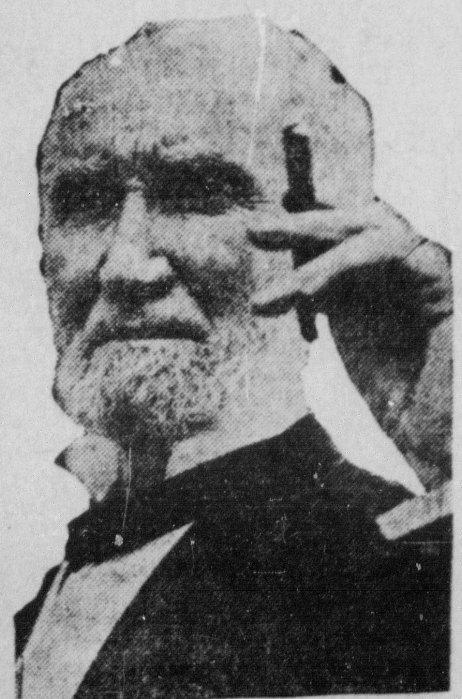

The use of the railway will so facilitate the movement of troops and supplies that the work of the punitive expedition in Mexico will be greatly shortened.

The success of the expedition depends largely on getting men and supplies behind Villa quickly and to portions of the country where army motor truck trains cannot go.

It is indicated that General Carranza has agreed to the use of the road, yielding to the urgent representations of the American government in advance of the perfection of the formal protocol for joint operations.

SUB BOAT EVIDENCE

Affidavit of American Indicates Englishman Tried to Escape.

SUSSEX CASE IS SERIOUS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 29.—The British horse transport Englishman was first shelled and then torpedoed by a German submarine, according to affidavits made to representatives of the State Department at Liverpool by three American survivors.

When this information was received today, officials said that it seemed clear that the Englishman had tried to escape.

The submarine was operating within the law, officials say, if it shelled the vessel when it was fleeing to escape capture.

While it is indicated that the case of the Englishman may not lead to difficulties between the United States and Germany; if it is proved that she was escaping, late dispatches bearing out previous testimony that the steamer Sussex was torpedoed without warning give the situation a serious aspect.

The State Department expects to receive from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin late today the result of his inquiry at the German Foreign Office concerning the circumstances of the torpedoing of the two vessels.

President Wilson discussed the submarine issue at length today with Colonel E. M. House.

TURNER ASKED BY CAMPBELL

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Dr. Z. B. Campbell, chairman of the State Civil Service Commission, today asked Attorney General Turner how the civil service system will be affected by the recent ruling of the Ross County Common Pleas Court.

The ruling was that the exemption of public employees who have held office for seven years and of non-competitive employees are unconstitutional provisions in the civil service laws.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, MARCH 29.—THIRTY PERSONS WERE KILLED AND FROM THIRTY-FIVE TO FORTY WERE INJURED EARLY THIS MORNING IN THE WRECK OF THREE FAST PASSENGER TRAINS ON THE NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES NEAR AMHERST, OHIO, 37 MILES WEST OF CLEVELAND.

TWENTY-FIVE BODIES HAD BEEN TAKEN OUT AT NOON AND AT LEAST FIVE MORE WERE KNOWN TO BE IN THE WRECK. THE EXACT NUMBER OF DEAD WILL NOT BE KNOWN UNTIL NIGHT.

THE WRECK WAS THE WORST THAT HAS OCCURRED IN OHIO IN MANY YEARS AND WAS ONE OF THE WORST IN THE HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK CENTRAL SYSTEM.

DENSE FOG OBSCURED THE SIGNAL SET BY THE FIRST SECTION OF THE EASTBOUND PITTSBURG, BALTIMORE AND BUFFALO LIMITED, CAUSING ANOTHER

SECTION OF THAT TRAIN TO CRASH INTO IT.

A SHORT TIME LATER, BEFORE THE SIGNALMEN COULD FLAG IT, THE TWENTIETH CENTURY LIMITED, WESTBOUND, CRASHED INTO THE WRECKAGE WHICH HAD PILED UP ON THE WESTBOUND TRACK.

Daylight had not yet appeared when the three trains piled up together.

Farmers and villagers rushed to the assistance of the stricken passengers.

The work of rescuing those pinned beneath the wreckage was hampered by the darkness.

Ambulances and automobiles and all kinds of vehicles were rushed from Elyria and other points to the scene of the wreck.

The little morgue at Amherst was soon filled with bodies of the dead. Most of those injured were conveyed to hospitals in Elyria.

The Twentieth Century proceeded on its way to Chicago. None of the passengers on this train were injured.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Two railway inspectors of the State Utilities Commission who are usually rushed to the scenes of wrecks, narrowly escaped being victims of today's wreck near Cleveland.

M. J. Heffernan and W. F. Packard had expected to leave Toledo for Cleveland during the night on the Chicago-Buffalo train which suffered in the first crash, it was said at the offices of the Public Utilities Commission.

They delayed their departure, however, and it is thought they went by the next train behind the Twentieth Century Limited and were probably at the wreck before they received official orders to visit the scene.

GERMANS MAKE GAIN

Berlin Reports the Storming of French Positions Along 2000 Meters at Malancourt.

DUTCH STEAMER SUNK

(Associated Press Cable)

London, March 29.—The Germans have made another notable gain in their drive against Verdun, according to today's official statement from Berlin concerning the storming of French positions at Malancourt along a front of 2,000 meters.

Malancourt lies about ten-and-one half miles northwest of Verdun and some two and a half miles northeast of the southern tip of the Avocourt Wood, into which the Germans pushed in their recent drive west of the Meuse.

Apparently the German assault was on the westerly side of the salient, where Paris last night reported a heavy attack by the Germans, declaring, however, that it had been repulsed.

This afternoon's Paris statement asserted that the Germans last night made no fresh assault upon the Malancourt front, claiming on the other hand that French forces had won a success against the Germans in the Avocourt Wood.

Sinking of the Dutch steamer Duiveland is announced. All of the crew was saved.

There has been desperate fighting on the Austro-Italian front, and Rome declares that the Italians were victorious in a 40-hour battle.

TOLEDO LOCKOUT STALLS ALL CARS

HOW TO OBTAIN BETTER ROADS

The following article on roads—how to obtain better roads and their relation to the community generally, is from the pen of one of the best known good roads men in Ohio:

"A community is what its people make it! The more wide-awake and enterprising citizens there are in the greater the community life and civic pride. Interest in the improvement of roads is the duty of every citizen. A community is known by the roads it keeps, the condition of its roads is its greatest advertisement; accordingly too many communities are poorly advertised. Well-kept highways represent the thrift and industry of the people and the efficiency of the local road officials; whereas mud, ruts, bumps, weeds and brush represent the indifference of the officials and indicates an inactive, don't-care public sentiment.

"No community of any size and consequence should be without an active road committee or club. A sentiment that is permitted to lie dormant, unorganized and programless is helpless; on the other hand, an active, intelligent and well-directed sentiment crystallized on a definite program will accomplish great things in any crusade. A road betterment program planned with one's neighbors not only offers excellent opportunity for unselfish service to the community, but its potential influence toward actual road improvement cannot be estimated, for when authorities in charge hear from 'organized sentiment' there is no turning-a-deaf-ear policy practiced.

"The achievements of the many live road committees and clubs in the state, most particularly those affiliated with the Ohio Good Roads Federation, exemplify the fact that a substantial sentiment is essential to the promotion of road betterment. Intelligent road activity not only gives to the community better roads, but it brings to light as well some of the extravagant methods of the past, and the customary indifference and impromptitude in road repair; and further, the public are impressed with the necessity of adopting and applying a more business-like policy in road improvement. "A community with an organized civic life that reaches and yearns for the better things in human existence, and strives for an ideal environment is the progressive, money-making community with good schools and churches and good roads over which to travel to do business and enjoy the pleasures of life."

NEW RANGE OF RIFLE CLUB OPENS FRIDAY

The up-to-date range of the Washington Rifle Club will be opened Friday afternoon and the public is cordially invited to attend the opening and take part in the shooting.

The range will be open to practice shooting Friday afternoon and beginning at seven o'clock Friday night the record shooting will take place.

The range, located in the basement of the Hunt building on South Main street, the entrance to which is inside the Rink, has just been completed, and much of the dangers attending the average range have been eliminated by targets which may be placed at any distance or brought to the shooting booth simply by turning a wheel.

It is expected that some excellent marksmen will be developed in this city in the near future.

CLEAR TRACK IS PREPARED

(By American Press)

Washington, March 29.—The army reorganization bill, one of the most important of the preparedness measures, was made the unfinished business of the senate on the motion of Senator Chamberlain. It will be kept before the senate until disposed of. The senate committee on military affairs reported the Hay bill from the house after striking out all after the cracking clause and substituting the text of the Chamberlain bill. This was to give the bill the most advantageous legislative status. Senator Chamberlain then asked that the senate bill now on the calendar be dropped. There was no objection and no debate, showing that there is no disposition to delay it.

CHLOROFORMED

(By American Press)

Washington, March 29.—The Susan B. Anthony federal suffrage amendment is "dead." The house judiciary committee linked the suffrage measure with the prohibition amendment and voted to postpone both indefinitely. The vote was 10 to 9 for indefinite postponement. The committee voted as follows: For both resolutions: Morgan, Taggart, Neely, Moss, Thomas, Volstead, Nelson, Dale and Chandler. Against: Webb, Carlin, Igoe, Dyer, Gard of Ohio, Whaley, Caraway, Steele, Graham and Danforth.

STREET CAR TIE UP

(By American Press)

Toledo, March 29.—Though no strike has been declared officially, the Toledo streetcar system is tied up. Nearly every one of the 250 cars on the system was run into the barns and motormen and conductors walked out. The trouble was brought about by refusal of the Toledo Railways and Light company to permit employees to wear union badges.

He Would Make A Funny Judge

AN Irishman, taking home for his Sunday dinner a large goose, stopped at an inn to obtain a little refreshment. Putting down the goose, he was proceeding to satisfy his thirst when a seedy looking individual, seizing the bird, made off with it. Pat at once gave chase and ere running far had his man by the neck.

"What did yez take the bird for?" queried the irate Irishman. "Sure," said the seedy looking one, "I took it for a lark!" "Did yez?" returned Pat. "Begorra, ye'd make a bad judge at a bird show then!"

FLOOD WATERS ARE RECEDING

(By American Press)

Columbus, March 29.—Refugees by the hundreds are returning to restore their disrupted homes on the West Side. The high waters of the Scioto are receding and the danger of a flood is passing. The question uppermost in the minds of West Siders, after assuming the danger had passed for the present, was how soon they again may be driven from their homes by a recurrence of high waters.

Although Chief Carter assigned many extra officers to duty in the food district to prevent looting, and with orders to shoot down intruders, no arrests were made and few attempts to rob were reported.

All schools on the West Side resumed regular sessions this morning.

BRIDGE GOES OUT

(By American Press)

Newark, O., March 29.—Searchers combed the banks of the Licking river for the body of an unknown woman believed to have lost her life shortly after the Manning street bridge, a 164 foot structure, went out. People along the river heard a woman scream shortly after the bridge went out, and it is feared she may have walked off one of the approaches into the river.

The Russian Prisoners

It is not known exactly how many Russians are now held as prisoners of war in Germany. The majority of estimates place the total number at upwards of one million, but it is certain that there are many many thousands of the Czar's subjects captured in battle now held in Germany.

Practically all of those Russian prisoners have been moved far from the eastern and northern frontier into the interior, most of them west of the central sections. With characteristic thrift the Germans have put those prisoners to work in the agricultural sections and like everyone else in Germany they are compelled to earn their way.

The thorough progressive life of the German agriculturists, their modern methods and means in vogue in the rural sections must be a revelation to the slow going, plodding, solid Russian peasant. The vast difference in German methods and their own primitive methods of farming cannot fail to make a deep impression on the Russian prisoners. They are seeing the light for the first time.

When they are exchanged or when at the end of the war they return to primitive Russia, their experiences in enlightened Germany and the knowledge acquired there cannot fail to bring at least a demand for better conditions at home.

The hundreds of thousands of Russian prisoners who have seen and learned the German way will not be content to take up again the burdens of life of the Russian peasant.

The effect upon the people of the Czar's domain is certain to be felt. These prisoners of war will return to their native land to preach and to teach and to practice the better way.

The seeds of a great revolt of men against iron government are now being planted in the minds and hearts of Russians and the outcome, while it may be postponed, is certain.

The Elements Serve Notice

The danger of destructive floods in the fertile and populous Miami and Scioto valleys, which fortunately proved to be, practically, nothing more than a danger, should rouse the officials, having in charge the work of carrying to completion the flood conservancy plans, to determined and speedy action.

The appalling loss of life and the tremendous property damage resulting from the floods of three years ago in the great valleys of the Miami and the Scioto, made agitation for the establishment of defenses against the attacks of the angry waters so insistent that legislative action, providing for the necessary protection was taken.

Subsequently that comprehensive plan of defense was compelled to run the gauntlet of legal attacks and later on was made the foot ball of petty politicians with the result that no tangible results have been attained by the people.

Since 1913 there has been a pronounced disposition to discourage the project and bring about the abandonment of the whole plan, by official inaction.

In the courts and in the realm of politics the plan for flood defense has stood the test and the demand for adequate protection has never lessened.

As time passed, however, without a recurrence of the floods, the frantic fears of the people were, in a measure, allayed and the demand for action became less vehement. The present conditions have brought vividly before them the horrors of three years ago and it is not likely now that they will maintenance any further delays.

The residents of those great valleys are entitled to action and the angry elements have served notice upon officials that they can no longer play fast and loose with a matter of such grave moment.

Trailers

Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been expended by progressive manufacturers throughout the United States and Europe during the last half dozen years in perfecting trailers for automobiles. The demands of the commercial world for more space upon which to store goods for transportation without multiplying the cost of motive power made the trailer problem acute and the resourceful manufacturers have solved it. In heavy hauling the trailer is now decidedly "the thing."

In army maneuvers both in peace and war the trailer has served and is serving a long felt want—it has made the big auto practical.

While the trailer is decidedly necessary to the farm wagon and the big transfer auto trucks, no place has ever yet been found for the human trailer. In professional and business life the individual who trails after and seeks to be propelled by and to make a profit out of the energies, abilities and originality possessed by the go-ahead people in the world of progress, is an abomination. Every individual should go along by his own motive power or stand still—he should not be a hanger-on.

This is a world of progress. There can be no success without progress and progress without originality in thought and action is impossible.

Poetry For Today

KYMN OF THE MARSEILLAISE.

Ye sons of Freedom, wake to glory!
Hark! Hark! what myriads bid you rise!

Your children, wives and grand-sires hoary,
Behold their tears and hear their cries!
Behold their tears and hear their cries!
Shall hateful tyrants mischief breeding,
With hireling hosts a ruffian band,
Affright and desolate the land,
When peace and liberty lie bleeding?

To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe!
March on, march on, all hearts
resolved
On liberty or death!

With luxury and pride surrounded,
The vile insatiate despots darc,
Their thirst for gold and power unbounded,
To mete and vend the light and air!
To mete and vend the light and air!
Like beasts of burden would they load us,
Like gods would bid their slaves
adore;
But man is man and who is more?
Then shall they longer lash and goad us?

To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe!
March on, march on, all hearts
resolved
On liberty or death!

O Liberty! can man resign thee?
Once having felt thy generous flame,
Can dungeon bolts and bars confine thee,
Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
Too long the world has wept, bewailing
The blood-stained sword our con-q'rors wield;
But Freedom is our sword and shield,
And all their arts are unavailing!
To arms, to arms, ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe!
March on, march on, all hearts
resolved
On liberty or death!

WAITS FACTS ABOUT SUSSEX

Washington, March 29.—With the approval of the president, Secretary
Lansing has instructed Ambassador Gerard to inquire of Germany whether any of its submarines torpedoed the British channel steamer Sussex, upon which twenty-five American citizens were traveling, or the British horse ship Englishman, which went down with the loss of one American life.

As the situation now stands, the United States has no conclusive proof that a submarine attacked either ship.

President Wilson laid all the state department's report on the subject be-

The Arizona Kicker

"ALWAYS ON THE JUMP"

SUNRISE EDITION U. S. A. SPECIAL EXTRA

OUR REGRETS.

WE are sorry for the little affair in the common council the other evening, but as mayor and presiding officer we had to pull our guns on Alderman Davidson or suffer a loss of dignity.

He has been aching for a row for months past and had offered odds of three to one that he could bluff us down.

We understand that the doctor dug out the bullet and that the alderman will be around in a week or two.

A WARNING.

Let our readers bear in mind that as postmaster we sleep in the postoffice, but as postmaster we don't get up at 2 o'clock in the morning to look for mail, and any one who tries to shoot us out of bed at that hour will get the worst of it.

LEFT IN THE LURCH.

Several weeks ago seven citizens of Grass Valley clubbed together and paid an eastern agency $50 apiece to send on seven women in search of husbands.

The women arrived the other day.

The youngest of the lot was fifty years old, and the handsomest had a cataract on her left eye and a broken nose.

The Grass Valley men took one brief glance and then bolted for the woods, and the women were shipped to Denver next day.

ADVERTISING.

WE formerly believe that advertising pays. Here in this town it would be a dead loss to advertise in our contemporary, because he would have to use shingle nails in place of type to set it up and because no one but his uncle and his wife and himself read his alleged newspaper, and they are too poor to buy anything.

But advertising in the Kicker pays.

SHOCKED SOCIETY.

High society in this town is making a gigantic attempt to be shocked because Mrs. Colonel D'Aubry sent the growler to a saloon on her birthday, but it is a tempest that will soon be over.

LITERARY TASTE.

Colonel John Roberts stopped his paper last week because there were only fourteen murder items in it and his usual dose is twenty-one.

We had to overhaul 500 exchanges to find as many as we did, and we rather feel glad the colonel is off the list.

He's got a regular mania for murder items, and if anybody has 500 of them in a scrap book the colonel will pay at least $50 for the outfit and read every one of them over five times.

FEDERAL SLEUTHS LAND THE MEN WHO ROBBED THE B. & O.

With the arrest of William Carl Rentz, of Atlanta, at Cincinnati this week, another of the gang who robbed the B. & O. mail train No. 1 at Central Station, West Virginia, last October, has been brought to light, it is claimed and within a few days the federal sleuths who have been working on the case since the robbery, expect to have the other man connected with the daring robbery.

It will be recalled that some $200,000 in unsigned currency and a large amount of signed currency was taken by the robbers, who held up the train under cover of darkness and made a thorough job of their work.

Jeff Harrison, another member of the gang and a nephew of Rentz, was arrested in San Antonio, Texas, a short time ago, and had $19,000 in unsigned currency upon him, it was claimed.

Rentz admitted delivering a package to his uncle at Grand Rapids but claimed he did not know its contents. With the exception of a trip to New Orleans, he claims he was not out of Atlanta, last year.

There were three men connected with the robbery and at least one in charge of an automobile by which they escaped. Leads coming to Cincinnati inspectors from Washington indicate that perhaps the three Harrison brothers were engaged in the robbery and Rentz was the chauffeur. The latter says he is an auto salesman and inventor.

The arrest of "Jack" or Dick Harrison at Grand Rapids has unbarred the latter's dual personality, it is stated. The latter is known there as John Evans and married in that city under that name. Man, wife and child are under arrest. Postal inspectors have trailed the Harrison brothers through every state west of the Mississippi. "Jeff" Harrison, arrested at San Antonio, is now held at Parkersburg, W. Va., and it is likely that "Jack" his alleged brother will be taken there. After Jeff's arrest, clues led to a cripple without occupation living at Grand Rapids. Suspicion was directed against "John Evans." He went to Hot Springs, Ark., regularly and returned with big rolls of money, neighbors say. Mrs. Evans, being trailed, was seen to make purchases and get change for bills of big denominations.

The inspectors believe that another member of the alleged Harrison gang got away while the raid on "Evans" apartments was being planned. The man had been noticed going in and out of the house and entered just a short time before the raid. He could not be found.

J. N. VAN DEMAN FUNERAL SERVICE

Honored in the gathering of the friends, lodge brothers and members of the bar, as in the words of eloquent memorial and in the magnificent tribute of flowers, John N. Van Deman, formerly of this city, but for the past fifteen years brilliant lawyer, man of affairs and manifold interests, of Dayton, was laid to rest in the Washington cemetery Wednesday morning at half past ten o'clock.

Sad beyond words was the last "home coming," with the shadow of the tragic circumstances following Mr. Van Deman's death, and necessarily absenting the devoted wife and three of the children, Mrs. Margaret Nelms, of New York, Dr. Will Van Deman, Toledo, Mrs. John Griswold.

Three sons, Mr. Alfred M. Van Deman, Mr. Stanley Van Deman, of New York, Mr. Frank L. Van Deman of Newark, N. J., brought over all that was mortal from Dayton on the 9:44 C. H. & D. train. The sons were accompanied by Mr. Alfred Van Deman's son, Raymond, Attorney Geo. W. Voreys, of the law firm of Van Deman and Voreys; Mrs. I. Wren, of Springfield, a sister of Mrs. Van Deman, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Wren.

Mr. Lentz, of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sheridan, of Piqua.

The sad circumstances had prevented holding funeral services in Dayton, but a delegation from the Montgomery County Bar association and a number of friends were at the union station in Dayton, offering whatever was possible of assistance.

At the station here when the train pulled in there waited relatives and friends, a large representation of the I. O. O. F. and representatives of the Fayette County Bar, who formed in the funeral cortege immediately for the services held in the Memorial Chapel at the cemetery.

The I. O. O. F. had charge of the services, the flower covered casket borne between an aisle formed by lodge brothers, into the chapel, and followed by the officiating minister, Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, of the First Presbyterian church.

Wonderfully impressive and beautiful were the brief services. The chancel, with its deep recess, was solidly banked with flowers and, for the first time in many dreary hours, the sun poured its brightness through the stained glass windows of the pretty chapel, resting like a benediction upon the casket.

Following the opening scripture reading and prayer of the minister, State Grand Master I. O. O. F., J. R. Miles took charge, conducting the solemn ceremonies of the order in a short service of exceptional beauty and appropriateness. Chaplain O. K. Probasco assisted in the ritual.

The personal tribute paid by the Grand Master to the one who had been called at the post of duty was most eloquent and a tender expression of the personal affection of himself and the brothers of the order and of recognition of Mr. Van Deman's able filling of the high offices of the State.

Mr. C. C. Pavey of Columbus was also present in the dual capacity of Past Grand Master I. O. O. F., and president of State Society of Sons of the American Revolution. Mr. Van Deman was formerly president of the state society of Sons of the American Revolution and Past Grand Patriarch of I. O. O. F.

There were in attendance two other state I. O. O. F. representatives, Past Grand Patriarch and present Grand Treasurer, J. B. Sheridan, of Piqua and F. C. Goodrich, Past Grand Master of Troy.

Before leaving the chapel the Odd Fellows deposited, in procession, the symbolic sprig of evergreen on the casket.

With the bright sun shining, birds singing and spring flowers budding all around the casket was borne from the chapel to the adjacent vault, where it will rest until Mrs. Van Deman is able to come over for the interment.

The active pallbearers were Messrs. R. S. Quinn, Frank L. Stutson, Robert Howat, D. S. Craig, Frank A. Chaffin, Dr. G. W. Blakeley. The honorary pallbearers representing the Fayette County Bar Association were Hon. A. R. Creamer, Judge F. G.

Carpenter, Hon. C. A. Reid, Attorneys H. H. Sanderson, E. L. Bush, W. B. Rogers.

Seldom, if ever, has there been seen such a wealth of floral tribute and only a part of the flowers sent were brought. They included superb floral designs and emblems from the I. O. O. F.; State Bar association; the American Bar association; the Montgomery county Bar association and local bar; from the State Society of American Sons of Revolution; the law firm of Van Deman and Voreys; the Third Presbyterian church, of Dayton; trustees of Miami university; the Elks; the Men's Club and other social organizations of Dayton; the Monday Club of this city and many others.

Speaking of Mr. Van Deman as an attorney and senior member of the law firm of Van Deman and Voreys, the Dayton News of Monday said:

His reputation as an attorney with a diverse knowledge of the principles of jurisprudence, law and equity, was state-wide. In 1914, the Ohio Bar Association, to which he belonged more than thirty years, honored him by electing him to its presidency. He was also a member of the American Bar association and acted as a member of several important committees in 1902.

His studies completed, he was admitted to the bar in 1877. From the first he won a reputation as a wise counselor and successful lawyer, especially in civil cases. He gave most of his attention to corporations and was attorney for the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton for 15 years.

His experience in the federal court was extensive. He was the first lawyer at his bar to have a case in the supreme court of the United States. He read much, devoting himself not only to law but to general literature. He is said to have had a most remarkable memory, in that he was able to tell not only the case in which some principle of law was made, but the volume and almost the page where it could be found.

Always did he interest himself in education, for many years serving as a member of the school board of Washington C. H. He also belonged to the board of trustees of Miami university for more than 20 years.

He removed to Dayton in 1898. Two years later he was chosen as Republican presidential elector and cast his vote for McKinley and Roosevelt. He had continued the practice of law in this city right up to the time and even through his illness as senior member of the firm of Van Deman & Voreys. His grim determination and tenacity of purpose were never shown to better advantage than a few days before his death when, suffering severely, he sent for his stenographer and painfully dictated the brief of a case that was soon to come before the supreme court.

INSPECTION AND BANQUET ATTRACT 100 SIR KNIGHTS

The inspection and review of Garfield Commandery, featured by an elaborate banquet served by the ladies of Royal Chapter No. 29, Eastern Stars, drew more than 100 Sir Knights to the lodge parlors, Tuesday evening.

The Knights in full uniform assembled at the lodge parlors at five o'clock, and Mr. Ross Alkire, of Mt. Sterling, was given the first part of the initiatory work.

At six-thirty the Sir Knights marched to the banquet room where the attractive banquet was faultlessly served, proving a genuine delight and the Eastern Star Ladies were highly complimented upon the excellence of the banquet. Eminent Commander, Wm. W. Curless, of Greenfield, presided, and Dr. R. M. Hughey, Dr. G. W. Holdron, Attorney E. L. Bush and Right Eminent Sir Knight John Gibson, the inspecting officer, made short speeches.

After the speeches the Sir Knights marched to the lodge room and the inspection and review were made, and the Commandery complimented upon conditions generally. The initiation was then completed.

Tonight the Blue Lodge will be inspected by Mr. William Rector of Williamsport and tomorrow night the Council will undergo inspection by Dr. Frank Henley, of Cincinnati.

POMONA GRANGE.

The Pomona Grange will meet at the Odd Fellows' Hall, Saturday morning at nine o'clock. A basket dinner will feature the noon hour.

In Social Circles

Mrs. Jesse Persinger and Mrs. Harley T. Wilkin added a very brilliant affair to the spring social season, Tuesday afternoon, in a Bridge, the first of two parties honoring their guests, Mrs. Howard Tolle, of Hillsboro, and Miss Lillian Hall, of Toledo. Mrs. Rush Machin Hendrix, of Columbus, who was to have been the third of the trio of honor guests, was detained in Columbus by the high waters.

Mrs. Persinger's handsome home, redolent with spring blossoms, presented a most attractive contrast to the outside drip of rain and overcast skies; the guests enjoying doubly the gaiety of the game and its environment, together with the afternoon's cordial hospitalities.

Mrs. Ella Courts scored high progressions and was presented with a corsage bouquet.

The collation which followed the game was delicious, the ice cream baskets filled with ripe red strawberries, and cake with green icing blending in an extremely pretty color scheme. Adorning the center of each small table was an exquisite white basket of sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Persinger was looking very handsome in pink satin Francaise, with black net over dress and relief of gold.

Mrs. Wilkin was charming in flowered pink messaline, with bands of fur.

Mrs. Howard Tolle, who as Miss Lois Bean, had always been a welcome addition to the younger circles of Washington, was found even more attractive as a young matron. She was wearing pale blue taffeta, the smart basque laced with black velvet ribbon and trimmings of velvet and lace.

Miss Hall wore an elaborate creation of light blue taffeta flowered with pink rose buds, maline and velvet, very becoming to her decided blonde type.

Fifty guests were in attendance.

The Browning Club met Tuesday night with Mrs. P. J. Henness, president, in the chair. The secretary, Mrs. Burgett, gave special reports as to plans for Baby Week, commencing the 4th of April. Mrs. Harry Sprenger announced everything as promising well.

A committee, Mrs. A. W. West, Miss Ogle and Mrs. Jones, was appointed to aid in regard to speakers who will be on hand at Central school building, East Side, Cherry Hill, Sunnyside and at the mill and factories, to aid in Baby Week work.

Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins was appointed delegate to the National Federation to be held in New York City and Mrs. Bella Ustick, alternate.

The president referred sympathetically to the death of Mrs. Channel, mother of one of the members of the Browning Club. The president brought up the subject of programs for next year and there followed discussion.

The first number on the program which was under the Department of Literature, Mrs. Carpenter, chairman, was the "Short Story," an interesting paper by Mrs. Ustick.

The Literary world has a wonderfully varied amount in its make up history, biography, epic poetry, dramas and romances, but today there is a change from the library of standard novels to the short story, which is aspiring more and more definitely to a mission of its own.

America is certainly filling out a need today in largely making out character stories—from Mark Twain and Bret Harte in California; Hamlin Garland in the northwest; Mary Wilkins Freeman, Hawthorne and Sarah Jewett, Ruth Stewart, Cable and Craddock, as also many others, the lines for short stories are marked out to great perfection and of a wonderfully general interest.

Mrs. Laura Gregg gave a very interesting book review of a play: "Children of the Earth," for which $10,000 was offered as prize by Winthrop Ames and was won by Alice Brown.

The engagement of Mr. Fred Carpenter, son of Judge and Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, to Miss Pauline Groschner, of Toledo, has been announced and is eliciting good wishes galore from Mr. Carpenter's many friends in this city, a limited number of whom are fortunate enough to have met the charming bride-to-be.

The courtship was begun at the Ohio State University where both young people were students.

Mr. Carpenter, whose brilliant university career was an auspicious forerunner of his later study of law, is now launched in practice at Toledo, with bright prospects for a successful career.

The date of the marriage has not yet been named.

Miss Del Lanum pleasantly entertained the Wednesday Euchre Club this afternoon.

A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon's game.

The "500" club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Sherman Murry, Wednesday afternoon.

MODERN WOODMEN MEETING FRIDAY P. M.

Modern Woodmen of America will have open meeting for the public on Thursday evening, in Red Men's Hall, from 7 to 8 p. m., March 30th. State Lecturer McDonald will tell you of the good this Society is doing. Come and bring your friends. By order of committee.

INVENTION MAY REVOLUTIONIZE THE AIR-BRAKE

C. L. Craig Applies for Patent on Device Which He Believes Will Prevent Wrecks and Permit Engineer to Have Complete Control Over His Train at All Times.

Mr. C. L. Craig of this city is in possession of a new device for which he has just applied for a patent, which he believes will revolutionize the present air-brakes for controlling trains, and which has been pronounced by old railroad men to be ahead of anything in the air brake line that they have ever beheld.

Mr. Craig started work on the device several weeks ago, completed it, and last week went to Washington, D. C., where the patent office records failed to disclose anything like his invention, and he immediately applied for a patent on the contrivance and firmly believes that the device is worth a vast sum.

The invention is a testing and controlling device for railroad train air brakes, for which Mr. Craig makes the following claims:

By shifting a valve an engineer can begin setting the breaks at the back end of the car, the front end, or at both ends simultaneously.

The air can be extended to forty cars or coaches, or twice as far as at present.

In case a train breaks in twain, the brakes set automatically at front and rear.

The engineer can see at all times just how much pressure he has at the rear of his train.

Device will reduce time on fast trains by starting and stopping promptly without jar.

Can stop train quicker with 50 pounds pressure than the old way with 70 pounds pressure.

Friction not so great on brake-shoe or wheel.

System can be installed on any car with the present Westinghouse brake at additional cost of $10 per car.

Mr. Craig intends marketing the device as soon as patent is issued and will probably locate a plant here.

TWO CARS ROLL OVER BIG BANK

American Troops Caught In Wreck In Mexico.

TEN REPORTED INJURED

Villa's Known Ability as a Director of Ambuscades Arouses Fears That American Troops May Be Caught In a Mountain Trap—Exact Whereabouts of General Pershing Remains Unreported.

San Antonio, Tex., March 29.—Information obtained by General Funston from what was said to be an unofficial source indicates that General Pershing, commander of the American expedition into Mexico, has been using a part of the Mexican North-western railroad for transportation of troops.

This information included a report of the overturning of two cars and the injuring of ten troopers of the Tenth cavalry and several horses. Three of the men were reported seriously injured. The accident occurred while the cars were being taken over a temporary track that had been built around the Cumbre tunnel south of Casas Grandes. One of the rails gave way and the cars rolled down an embankment.

It was not believed at headquarters that General Pershing's use of the railroad prior to receipt of permission from the Carranza government would endanger the negotiations now being conducted by the state department, because it was assumed he had gained permission of those in charge of operations of that section of the line.

Advices from Washington that the state department had prepared a memorandum urging Carranza to decide the question of using the railroad without waiting for the ratification of the protocol revived the hope that perhaps by Thursday the stores held at El Paso may be forwarded to some field depot more accessible to the troops now operating almost 300 miles from the boundary line.

Exactly where Colonel Dodd's cavalry is now, or into how many detachments it has been divided, was not known at General Funston's headquarters. The exact whereabouts of General Pershing also remained unreported, but this lack of information created no uneasiness, for General Pershing still has orders to work out his own problems. Full realization of the danger into which some of the advanced detachments must be moving was acknowledged. Villa's known ability as a director of ambuscades has aroused frank expressions of fear among army officers that he may catch some of the American troops in a mountain trap.

It is believed Villa is headed for San Andres, about twenty-five miles southwest of Chihuahua City, a favorite headquarters of the bandit. His is thought to be already not less than fifty miles ahead of his pursuers and possibly leading the chase a much greater distance.

NEGRO TROOPER KILLED

(By American Press)

Columbus, N. M., March 29.—A message from General J. J. Pershing's headquarters said that a trooper George A. Hudnell, a negro, soldier in troop B, Tenth cavalry, had been killed in a wreck, but gave no details. Hudnell left a widow at Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

SNUG SUM

(By American Press)

Washington, March 29.—Diplomatic and domestic aspects of the Mexican problem overshadowed its military side here. Reports from General Funston disclosed no change in the situation on the border or in Mexico. Congress rushed through an emergency appropriation of $8,611,502 to pay for the pursuit of the bandits, and the state department prepared to press General Carranza for permission to use Mexican railways to solve the troop supply problem.

Senator Gallinger, Republican leader in the senate, presented to Secretary Baker a telegram from Senator Fall at El Paso dealing with the railway and border questions. It declared shipments of gasoline intended for the American forces in Mexico were being held up by Carranza officials.

The senator's message also said there was great uneasiness in El Paso because of the large Mexican population in the city, among them many former Villa followers. An attack, he said, was not so much feared as incendiarism. In El Paso, he said, there were only 300 or 400 soldiers, while directly across the line were 800 Carranza troops and in the immediate vicinity across the Mexican border from 2,500 to 3,000 Carranza soldiers.

HEADWATERS ARE BOOMING

(By American Press)

Pittsburgh, March 29.—The Allegheny river is rising rapidly and Pittsburgh has a flood stage of water. Twenty-two feet is considered the flood stage here. Indications now point to a mark of 24 feet being reached. The up-river snows, belated in their disappearance by the persistent cold weather, have yielded to the warm weather of the last few days, and are now swelling the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers beyond their banks. There was more than two feet of snow at many places on the Allegheny watershed, and ice is running out of the upper reaches of the stream. Rain fell over the Allegheny watershed. Over the Youghiogheny and Monongahela headwater points rain was also reported.

Washington, March 29.—The public health service has taken up with the Ohio state board of health the case of Edward Nusbaumer, the Norwalk man who is suffering from leprosy. Nusbaumer, who is now in San Francisco, will be returned to his home, provided the Norwalk authorities make a definite promise in writing to receive and care for the unfortunate man.

EMBALMER IS HELD IN WAITECASE

Alleged to Have Accepted $9,000 to Make False Oath.

WAITE MAKES CONFESSION

Declares That an Abnormal Monster, the "Bad Man of Egypt," Took Residence in His Soul and Prompted the Murders of Mr. and Mrs. Peck. Attorneys Looking After Psychological Phase of Waite's Case.

New York, March 29.—District Attorney Swann and detectives went to the home of Eugene Oliver Kane, an embalmer, to arrest Kane on a charge of having accepted from Dr. Arthur W. Waite a week ago $9,000 in cash to swear, in case of Dr. Waite's arrest and trial for the murder of John E. Peck, that Kane, who prepared the body of Mr. Peck for burial in Dr. Waite's apartments, had used arsenic in the embalming fluid. Dr. Waite told District Attorney Swann he had paid the $9,000 to Kane in a telephone booth in a cigar store. Kane not only agreed, according to Dr. Waite, to swear, in case of a trial, that there had been arsenic in the embalming fluid, but he also was to prepare some embalming fluid containing arsenic and turn it over to Judge Swann whenever the case against Dr. Waite, then at liberty, should grow serious.

Dr. Waite, shortly after legal help had been retained to look after the psychological phases of the accused dentist's case, confessed that an abnormal monster within himself, whom the dentist for years has known and struggled against as the "Bad Man From Egypt," put a mixture of various deadly disease germs into food which Dr. Waite—always at the uncontrollable urging of his other personality, the "Bad Man From Egypt"—supplied to his mother-in-law, Mrs. John E. Peck of Grand Rapids, in the dentist's apartments in Riverside Drive, and so had murdered Mrs. Peck.

But Dr. Waite, from his cot at Bellevue, said the germs which the "Bad Man From Egypt" had used to kill Mrs. Peck had not worked swiftly enough to please the murderous Egyptian who years ago had taken a residence in Dr. Waite's soul and would not be ousted.

Back in the Riverside Drive apartments, the "Bad Man" again was in possession of Dr. Waite's being when Mrs. Waite's father, Joan E. Peck, came to visit the Waite. Promptly the "Bad Man From Egypt" brushed by Dr. Waite's protests and decided to kill Mr. Peck. The "Bad Man" had not forgotten, however, that the germ method was slow. Therefore, said Dr. Waite, the "Bad Man" ordered him to murder Peck by putting arsenic in his soup, in tea and in an egg-nogg which the "Bad Man" forced Dr. Waite to hand to Mr. Peck five or six hours before he died.

The "Bad Man" that held full sway over Dr. Waite's soul when he committed these crimes, therefore, was wholly to blame, not the dentist. While the "Bad Man" gripped him, Dr. Waite says he was abnormal. But as recently as the night before last, the doctor said, normality came back to him insofar as he was able finally to rid himself of the "Bad Man From Egypt."

CONFESSION

(By American Press)

Cleveland, March 29.—Miss Bessie Reimers, nineteen, a waitress, confessed, according to Chief of Detectives Gideon Rabshaw, that she accidentally set fire to the Foster apartments in an attempt to commit suicide. Previously she had told police she was attacked and bound and gagged by two masked men.

The girl is said to have admitted that she set fire to her bed in an effort to commit suicide, but was rescued by firemen.

J. B. Lewis, forty-two, who has a wife and three children in New York and who was employed here as a solicitor, and Mrs. Elizabeth Simpkins, fifty, a saleswoman, lost their lives in the fire, and a score of people were injured when the flames swept through the third floor of the apartment. Property loss $30,000.

It Might Be Worse.

New York, March 29.—John W. McGrath, private secretary to Colonel Roosevelt, was sentenced to serve thirty days in the workhouse. With his cousin, William Powers, who received the same sentence, he was accused of assaulting Charles Light, Jr., of Brooklyn. The two prisoners spent the night in the Raymond street jail and were taken to Blackwell's Island this morning. The charges were the result of a fight in a backroom of a Brooklyn saloon on June 11, 1915. McGrath at all times gave his right name, but did not let it be known that he was Colonel Roosevelt's secretary. In court he was compelled to give the name of his employer.

MINERS DEMANDS REFUSED

Anthracite Operators Reject Several Proposals.

New York, March 29.—The anthracite coal mine owners have decided to refuse the demands of the miners for recognition of their union, an eight hour day and a 20 per cent increase in wages. There does not, however, seem to be any likelihood of a break between the miners and the operators. It was well understood that the miners do not hope for a complete acceptance of their demands, and that after they have been refused they will join with the operators in trying to reach a compromise agreement.

It is understood that the mine owners are ready to give a 5 per cent wage increase with an eight hour day, contending that such concessions will amount to a 10 per cent wage increase. On the other hand, it is pretty well understood that the miners will be glad to accept a 10 per cent increase if they also can get an eight hour day.

There seems to be little hope that the joint conference, which convened today, will be able to arrive at a conclusion satisfactory to both sides in anything less than three weeks. At present there is no probability of a strike.

DISASTER

(By American Press)

West Vivian, W. Va., March 29.—Three men were killed instantly twenty others were frightfully burned and injured and eight men escaped.

when an explosion partially wrecked the King mine of the Tidewater Coal company here. The fact that the explosion was a local one, where twenty-three miners were employed, probably prevented a greater list of fatalities.

Of the twenty-three miners employed in the section where the explosion occurred, not one escaped injury and most of them suffered burns or injuries which will likely prove fatal. The dead James Tucker, assistant mine foreman; William Abbot, colored miner, and an unidentified white man.

A STORY OF MOUNTAIN RAILROAD LIFE
by FRANK H. SPEARMAN
AUTHOR OF "WHISPERING SMITH," "THE MOUNTAIN DIVIDE," "STRATEGY OF GREAT RAILROADS," ETC.
NOVELIZED FROM THE MOVING PICTURE PLAY OF THE SAME NAME. PRODUCED BY THE SIGNAL FILM CORPORATION.

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic railroad by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, a fireman, her father, and his friends from a fire. Rhinelander, financier, and Robert Ames, promoter, from a threatened collision. Seagruie, promoter, employed by Seagruie, promoter, from a threatened collision. Seagruie, promoter, employed by Seagruie, promoter, from a threatened collision.

"But—" sputtered Cassidy, with difficulty, "I've sold this place this minute, Mr. Seagruie, to this man Rhinelander here for tea thousand dollars."

"Do you mean to say," demanded Seagruie, impressively, "that you don't consider your property worth fifteen thousand dollars?"

"Sure, I do," agreed Mike, his eyes blinking with astonishment.

"Then," exclaimed Seagruie, solemnly, "this man has fraudulently imposed on you."

Cassidy, bewildered, looked to his friendly adviser for a suggestion.

"Phwat the divvie 'm I to do?"

"Do!" thundered Seagruie, seeing now that he had his victim coming. "Tear up your fraudulent contract here and now and sign an honest one."

The sturdy pioneer, with a show of indignation, tore up his copy of Rhinelander's contract, signed a more equitable one for the obliging Seagruie and put another and untainted check for fifteen thousand dollars into his pocket.

Seagruie beckoned to his posse of men and, headed by Cassidy, they told Rhinelander and his companions to get off the premises before they were put off.

Rhinelander, familiar with the bullying tactics of his enemies, saw the situation he faced. But he stood his ground before Seagruie and Cassidy, listening patiently to what the victimized old man had to say, but absolutely firm in his resolve to stand on his rights.

"My right of way is legal," he said to both men. "And I'll bring the law here right now to enforce it."

Hastening to the telegraph office inside one of his outfit cars, he telegraphed to Helen:

Seagruie is using force to protest my right of way. Have attorney meet me at the depot at 11 o'clock. Arrange for a special to bring deputies up here.

RHINELANDER.

The move was not lost on Seagruie. When he saw Rhinelander board the car containing the telegraph outfit, he summoned his own operator and dispatched him to a spot between Rhinelander's car and the main line with

Nyal Liver Salts

For Liver Faults

WHEN the liver is upset the whole system is out of tune. The general condition of your health is dependent upon normal liver action. To correct constipation and live the lazy liver we unhesitatingly suggest the use of NYAL LIVER SALTS. Take it in the morning just before breakfast—you will feel better all day. The sluggish, inactive liver makes you feel out of sorts; slows you down; causes biliousness and sick headache. You cannot feel right when your liver is all wrong. When you feel run down and seem to lack endurance—your liver is probably out of order—undoubtedly it is badly in need of a good dose of NYAL LIVER SALTS. For prompt satisfactory results you can depend upon NYAL LIVER SALTS—a saline laxative that keeps the liver working right. Remember, that for stomach faults you should use NYAL LIVER SALTS. 25c and 50c the bottle.

PERSONAL QUESTION

A PARTY of strangers were paying a visit to one of the colleges. It was in the late fall, and the air was crisp and cold.

One of the members of the party, a charming young woman, was escorted through the grounds by a learned but very absentminded professor.

Suddenly two members of the track team, dressed in their scanty running costume and headed for a spin on the road, passed the strolling couple.

"It's dreadfully cold," remarked the young woman, with a dainty shiver as she gazed after the lightly clad runners, "to be without stockings."

The professor's mind, deep in contemplation of the fourth dimension or some other equally perplexing problem, was attracted by the sound of the girl's voice.

"Then why," he asked absently, "did you leave them off?"

Infantry Attacks Near Verdun Prove Futile.

TEUTON CASUALTIES HEAVY

Germans Pounding Positions Recently Captured by the British in the St. Elix Sector—Czar's Forces Losing Heavily in Their New Offensive. Review of Operations on Italian and Other Battle Fronts.

London, March 29.—A fresh attempt by the Germans to break through the French lines northwest of Verdun has resulted in failure and with heavy losses to the Germans.

After artillery preparation for another effort to lessen the six miles intervening between them and the Paris-Verdun railway and the nine miles still between them and Verdun, the Teutons launched a great infantry attack on the Haucourt-Bethincourt sector. In successive waves the Germans were thrown into the fray, but all of their attempts were put down by the curtain of fire of the French guns and fire from the French infantry.

There is still an intermittent bombardment going on northeast of Verdun, and in the Woivre region the French have been shelling German positions. In the Argonne they are giving the German lines no rest, while in the Vosges the artillery action has been marked on both sides.

On the British front in the St. Elix sector the Germans opened a heavy artillery fire on the British forces holding the ground gained by them Monday. The British artillery replied effectively, and according to the British official statement, these positions are still in the hands of the British.

CLAIM THEY SAW ACCUSED WITH CATTLE

The state rested its case against Sam Whited and Miles Holly, accused of stealing four cattle in Pike county, at ten o'clock Wednesday morning. A motion by attorneys for the defense to dismiss the case was overruled, and the work of examining witnesses for the defense was then taken up, and at three o'clock nine witnesses had been examined, and it was expected that a dozen additional witnesses would be examined by tonight and all witnesses examined by Thursday noon.

Elmer Vance testified that he saw Samuel Whited driving four black cattle at a certain date. His testimony was substantiated by Hal Vance, who also stated that he saw Whited driving four black cattle. No other direct evidence of consequence was offered against Whited.

Everitt Wilson testified that he saw Miles Holly driving four black cattle. No others had seen Holly with the cattle.

It was stated by an attorney for Whited that they would be able to prove that Whited was elsewhere at the time he was said to have been driving the cattle, as testified to by the Vances.

Five minutes were allowed to each character witness taken from this county.

ROTTEN MAINS FAIL TO WITHSTAND VERY ORDINARY PRESSURE

The city water mains, in two or three places, failed to withstand an 85 pound direct pressure thrown into them Wednesday morning when a test was made on Washington avenue, on the John Green corner.

A direct pressure was ordered and the gauge at the hydrant on Washington avenue showed 85 pounds. However the pressure was of short duration as the mains broke at the base of the hydrant and the water was forced up through the earth.

A break appeared at the same time on East Court street, in front of the Rothrock Laundry, and the water ran down the gutter in a heavy stream.

The belief has been expressed that under continued pressure of 85 pounds and over, the mains would show defects in other parts of the city. The company had agreed to furnish 100 pounds pressure whenever required.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM STATE BOARD

Mayor Oster is in receipt of another letter from the State Board of Health in which request is made for copies of ordinances and resolutions from council determining to proceed with the installation of a new sewerage system in this city, and for financing the same.

The communication will be referred to council at the meeting next Monday night.

100 CHILDREN WILL TAKE PART

Rehearsals for the Spring Operetta to be put on by Miss Edith Blackman with her pupils of the 4th grade and a selected few from the other primary grades of Central are progressing in the most satisfactory manner, and it is a safe prophecy that people will see a beautiful children's entertainment, novel and pretty on Thursday night at the High School Auditorium.

For three straight years Miss Blackman's fourth grade has won the prize art picture and the proceeds of this entertainment will be used for framing these pictures.

A hundred children will take part in the Spring Operetta; which is in three parts. Mother Goose and her Garden will offer a new chapter in the popular Dame's book of experiences and new reveals for the children. They say that Old King Cole and his three fiddlers offering suite to the Queen of Hearts and her ladies in waiting is alone worth a visit to the auditorium, and the Fairy Spring the prettiest of sprites.

The dramatization of "Chick-a-Biddy" is quite new and taking and part third, "The Springtime Drill."

extremely pretty with costumes of white and green.

There will also be between acts specialties, entertaining and cute.

The children are practicing for the Operetta with delighted zest. Johnson's orchestra will furnish the music.

URGES PROPERTY OWNERS TO GET BUSY

Service Director Hillery urges residents of South Main street, Paint street and Columbus avenue to install lead pipes to take the place of the present gas and water pipes which have been installed for several years, and which would soon rust so that the pipes would no longer be serviceable and require digging up the new paving.

He urges immediate action so that the work will be completed when the contractors open up the work of excavating for the new paving within a short time.

ENDED HIS LIFE BY HANGING TO RAFTER

William Armstrong of Wilmington, ended his life at his home in that city Tuesday, by hanging himself to a rafter in the woodshed.

The man had been despondent over ill health for sometime, and taking advantage of his wife's absence up-town, ended his life. He was 73 years of age.
